Charming rural mansion in the Tramuntana Mountains

This majestic residence from the 16th century was renovated in 1993 with great attention to detail. The mansion sits gloriously on a hill of 500 m enjoying stunning panoramic views of the Tramuntana Mountains. The capital of Mallorca and various golf courses are just a 15 minutes drive away.

All 17 bedrooms (each with bathroom en suite) boast stereo and TV connection and offer a high living comfort. Air conditioning and central heating provide for a comfortable room climate in every season of the year. Traditional high-quality materials were used for the renovation. The mansion was equipped with the latest technology available.

From the pool terrace one can enjoy spectacular panoramic views of the mountains and the plain to Palma. If you would like to have more information about the property, please send us an email with your postal address and a landline number and we will contact you directly.
